Deadline January 15. Eugene McDermott Scholars Program: McDermott Scholars receive one of the most selective and generous undergraduate merit awards in the nation; it includes a full scholarship and stipend package with access to UT Dallas' rigorous education, leadership training, cultural enrichment, and personalized opportunities designed to equip them with the skills, experience, and confidence to succeed as leaders. Students must be first-time college freshmen and must have a minimum verbal and math SAT score of 1450 or a minimum ACT score of 33. Diversity Scholarship Program: The scholarship targets students who have a record of academic excellence in high school or community college and show significant financial need. This scholarship can be used to cover education-related expenses, including tuition, fees, and housing. Each student will receive $5,000 per year for a maximum of eight semesters of undergraduate study. Applicants must be admitted to the university, be an undergraduate student enrolling for the first time at UT Dallas as a full-time student in the fall semester of the application year, have a record of academic merit in high school or community college, have financial need as determined by the UT Dallas Financial Aid Office, complete the financial aid application (FAFSA or TASFA), submit an essay on the topic indicated on the application, attend a Freshman or Transfer Student Orientation session, participate in regular Diversity Scholars Program academic check-in meetings after enrolling in the University, and volunteer at least five hours for the Office of Diversity and Community Engagement each semester. | http://www.utdallas.edu/financial/scholarships/ |
